Middlesbrough College has a legal and moral duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of all children, young people and vulnerable adults. Therefore, you are required to disclose information relating to any criminal convictions as part of your enrolment at the College. Having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you from studying at the College but will depend on the nature of the course and the circumstances and background of the offence.

What data do we collect? – To ensure a positive transition from school to College we may be required to collect information about you when you apply. This includes performance data about you from your previous school or college along with your ability, progress and aspirations. We also collect pastoral data including; where you live, any learning support needs you may have and any health concerns – all of which helps us to support you during your time with us. To allow us to collect this information from your school or college we require your consent.

The College is monitored with closed circuit television cameras and images are stored for approximately 4 weeks and are then deleted (unless we need to keep them for any ongoing investigations).

How do we use the information we have about you? – Data such as GCSE results, maths and English results, and grade breakdowns are used to support you during your studies with us.

We hold exam board data in line with The Joint Council for Qualifications requirements. We may use your email address, phone number and postal address to contact you.

Sharing data – We will never share your data with commercial organisations and will only ever share your information with other educational and public sector organisations where there is a need to support you or promote your best interests, in line with safeguarding legislation. We may also send you information about future courses and services that are relevant to your application.

Access to your information - You are able to access any information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of any information please let us know at dpo@mbro.ac.uk

Privacy statement - For details on our privacy statement and how to unsubscribe from future communications please visit mbro.ac.uk/privacy
