

A Level English Literature

Our exam board is AQA, and we are following specification A.

Welcome to Year 2 English Literature at MC6

This year we will be studying the Texts in Shared Contexts exam – Literature of WWI. This is worth 40% of your overall grade.

However we will continue to do regular assessments for the Love Through the Ages exam. Your next mock exam on Othello, The Great Gatsby and the Pre-1900 poetry anthology we will be during the week beginning the 5th October

This year we will be studying:

- Journey's End – R.C. Sherriff
- Life Class – Pat Barker
- The Oxford Book of War Poetry

Don't forget! We start studying Life Class after October half term. You will need have read the novel in advance.

This year you will also need to complete some wider reading in relation to WWI Literature. Some great options include:

Bird Song – Sebastian Faulks

Regeneration – Pat Barker

All Quiet on the Western Front – Erich Maria Remarque

The First Casualty – Ben Elton

Have a look at our library in the classroom and feel free to borrow some WWI texts!

Don't forget!
The second draft of your coursework is due in on October 23rd!

"I'm really pleased with how things have worked out. I chose a mix of A Levels that appealed to me, but also subjects I felt I was good at and had a fighting chance of building a career after college.

"All my teachers were fantastic, and that really helped me. I think the willingness of my teachers to support and understand me was probably the most important thing. That support made it feel like the best path for me."
